The Illusion Fueling the Post

Trump handily defeated a large and seemingly formidable field in the primaries, and subsequently defied expectations by triumphing over Hillary Clinton, winning many states long thought to be solidly Democratic. The TV breadwinner is bored, in the way, feeling unworthy, because he has no job, but he is still living, of course, in that wondrous, glamorous environment—with nary a bibelot out of place on the modernistic shelves or a throw cushion missing on the oversize living room sofa—in which all television characters reside.

The Illusion Fueling the Post

Jim Banks R-IN provided the bill text and detailed analysis of the forthcoming plan, titled the Countering Communist China Act, ahead of its public release. He would violate the first amendment by forcing all Americans to be Christian.

The Illusion of Inclusion

Cruz denounced the middle class and ignores poverty. It is the essential source of information and ideas that make sense of a world in constant transformation.

The Conservative Illusion ~ The Imaginative Conservative

Among those who were most accepting of immigration, fewer than 10% were Trump voters, compared to over 80% among whites most opposed to immigration. Other scholars have thus confirmed that racial and immigration attitudes, rather than economic views, explained some Obama voters backing Trump in 2016. Living in such a collective system, satisfying so many of our wants through that system, we cannot escape the need for centralized, bureaucratized management, based on knowledge of how all the pieces in the system fit together and affect each other.

Modest Wedding Dresses by Maggie Sottero

This is not to say that politicians can implement any policies they want without fear of reprisals. She founded the conservative websites Twitchy and Hot Air.
