From 1952, when the emerged from its self-imposed sports isolation, to 1991, when the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics ceased to exist, the societies of eastern Europe dominated the Olympic Games. Masked men entered the hotel of the Israeli Olympic team and killed many of their men. Since it is impossible to imagine a time when children did not spontaneously run races or wrestle, it is clear that children have always included sports in their play, but one can only speculate about the emergence of sports as autotelic physical contests for adults.
