Hundreds homeless in Cornwall, new figures show

Successful homelessness strategies require all public services to contribute in a way that recognises the personal needs, strengths and assets of every household.

Cornwall's Homeless

Homelessness often results from a combination of events such as relationship breakdown, debt, adverse experiences in childhood and through ill health.

New figures reveal true reality of homelessness in Cornwall

However we will assist in with providing alternate resources if we are full.

Homeless

The referral will be sent to Addaction Cornwall and an outreach worker will go to the location where the rough sleeper was seen at to engage and support them. The property does not have to be in Cornwall. The Cornish homeless charity, St Petrocs, has an ambition to end street homelessness in Cornwall through its main objectives, which include campaigning to raise awareness and initiate support and funding.
