The site has the potential to provide information on the nature and extent of the 6th century occupation of the site, to which the early Latin inscribed stones belonged, as well as information on the type of activities undertaken on site. The use of Latin script, the language used and the appearance of a rare, early form of Christian symbolism, the Chi-Rho cross, shows that there was a highly literate Christian community at Kirkcudbright in the 6th century, likely to have been monastic in nature. Za nastanak ove Spomenice zahvaljujemo svim generacijama, od osnivača DVD-a do sadašnjih članova vatrogasnog društva koji su.

Paper contributed to the Teaching in the Community Colleges Online Conference, Online Instruction: Trends and Issues II. Stranraer was in Leswalt parish and the parish boundary was what became known as the Town Burn, which now runs in a tunnel under Castle Square. An appendix to this Report contains a list of those monuments in the said Stewartry which, in the opinion of your Commissioners, seem most worthy of preservation.

Base documentaire

Conditions in the castle prison were seemingly bad and in 1847 a new prison was built on Lewis Street, with the castle being used for a short time in the 1850s as a police station. The scheduled area is irregular on plan, to include the remains described above and an area around them within which evidence relating to the monument's construction, use and abandonment is expected to survive, as shown in red on the accompanying map.
