Health Equity

Joanna Bennett, of the Sainsbury Centre for Mental Health, reviewed race-related training and found it fragmented, with many different approaches and models. Institutionalised racism is directed towards patients, and is highlighted, for example by the inquiry into the death of David Bennett. Esmail 9 makes a case for increased monitoring of the NHS workforce with comprehensive data collection to combat institutional racism.

In carrying out this order, agencies shall consult with members of communities that have been historically underrepresented in the Federal Government and underserved by, or subject to discrimination in, Federal policies and programs. Although it is useful to address cultural awareness, diversity training does little to support interactions with service users and even less to support changes in the power relationships at managerial levels.
