CRIMINAL LAW REVISION COMMITTEE ELEVENTH REPORT: EVIDENCE (GENERAL)

As this report is only available in hard copy, we would be most grateful if you can provide a contact address that we can send a copy of the report to. In 1953 the late Lord Goddard said in a case Everybody knows that absence from the witness box requires a very considerable amount of explanation. I do so reluctantly, but there are some which I cannot think are right.

It is also proposed that a statement shall be admitted if it be shown that the person who made it is dead or unfit by reason of his bodily or mental health to attend as a witness. It should be for the judges to say what evidence is allowed to be given in courts, but that is quite a different matter. An unsworn statement is not evidence in the strict sense and it must be difficult for a jury to decide what weight, if any, to give to it.

File. Criminal Law Revision Committee

Section 2 created a new category of, since powers of arrest had depended on whether an offence was a felony or a misdemeanour. And, if a warning had been given, the jury might have formed the view that the accomplice had no motive for lying and have convicted and the conviction would then stand. About the Committee The Criminal Law Committee provides a forum for members from many countries and criminal justice systems to meet regularly, communicate, exchange views, and monitor developments in substantive and procedural criminal law.

CRIMINAL LAW REVISION COMMITTEE'S REPORT (Hansard, 9 August 1972)

It also repealed the offence of attempting to appeal to a foreign power, e. I now turn to the Committee's recommendation about the burden of proof which is sometimes placed on the accused, and I regret that I must again record my dissent from what they recommend. This section extended only to.

My Lords, would the noble Viscount accept my assurance that I neither wrote nor instigated the leading article in The Times on Monday? The report responds to these questions by laying out the principles governing extraterritoriality, and by providing recommendations for governments, courts, international organisations and businesses on methods for minimising costs and conflicts associated with extraterritorial exercises of jurisdiction.
