How to become a high school golf coach

There is some great information online but having in-person coaching allows a pro to see exactly what you are doing and will speed up your progress. Aim to brush the grass under the ball and keep the club head moving low and forwards. Group beginner lessons are a great way to meet fellow beginner golfers and find some new golfing buddies.

Yes it sounds strange, but hit down to get your iron shots up in the air. He produces short, easy to follow videos that focus on specific parts of the golf swing, without going too heavy on technicalities. Most full-set and iron sets come with a pitching wedge, and some come with a sand wedge.

Golf

Most of his videos are focused around the core philosophy of forgetting about positions, forgetting about the ball itself, and just swinging the golf club, with primary focus if any on your feet. The key measurement is not height, but rather wrist distance to the ground. Unfortunately being a high school golf coach is not a full time job so if financial considerations are your motivation for becoming a high school golf coach, I would advise not to become a coach.
