Abhidhamma Pitaka: The Basket of Abhidhamma

If certain things be counted one by one, they reach a totality gananagacchanti, say, a totality of five. The five Rūpa Jhānas differ according to the Jhāna factors.

Dilbhadra Maharjan: A critical observation modern and traditional ideologist on the origin of Abhidhamma

Consciousness pertaining to the Form-Sphere, 3. As neither dispersing nor collecting, as one who has dispersed? The more evolved persons, who seek no delight in ordinary sense-desires, but are interested in higher spiritual progress, must naturally be born in congenial places in harmony with their lofty aspirations. It contains the characteristics of both the Abhidhamma-Pitaka and Sutta-Pitaka.

Buddhism in a Nutshell

The Buddha preaching the Abhidhamma in heaven.
