Shadow of the Glen

She established an accredited Youth Theatre Programme, Aisling Óg, at the Cultúrlann before setting up her own business Teach Mhamó, an Irish speaking Day Care Centre for 0-5 year olds. Moll is the old Gaelic word for a beautiful woman. Striking analogies may also be found between old Mag and Paidín Mhaire of Cre na Cille Graveyard Clay, that other great work of debunkery in Irish which led to its author, Mairtin O Cadhain, being accused of a travesty.

An Mhaighdean Mhaiseach — The Spoken Irish of Rann na Feirste, Co. Donegal

As it stretched out in all directions and that population doubled, many of its most sociable features have been sacrificed for anonymity, I suspect. Rather than stay in the cinema and give me a story on which I could dine out for decades, my parents rushed towards St Anne's nursing home on Strand Road, where I made my debut a few hours later.

Uaigneas an Ghleanna & Chun na Farraige Síos

He has not claimed any deep knowledge of Irish, and his distance from his source material is much greater: but then, it should be added, Galway today is itself rather distant from the county of 100 years ago through which Synge walked and talked. And the shooting of heavy guns.

Aisling Ghéar, Irish Language Theatre

It is more beautiful than ever, with its manicured lawns, blazes of floral colour and its striking new Garden of the Senses. This is a traditional Irish song covered by many different artists.

Moll Dubh A' Ghleanna lyrics and chords

Some people contend that his plays exploit rather than express the western communities depicted, by providing a rather external and cruel rendition of character. .
