But where shall I find it? We must recognize that the soul is a different sort of object from the body—so much so that it does not depend on the existence of the body for its functioning, and can in fact grasp the nature of the forms far more easily when it is not encumbered by its attachment to anything corporeal. Every act helps to create an attitude.

Plato (Stanford Encyclopedia of Philosophy)

Their re- forming energy abated. But our strength helps to create a feeling of in- dependence, and we become unmindful of our God. If we answer that question negatively, we have some explaining to do: what led to this change? Let me never be ashamed to lean upon Thee, and to inquire daily at the gate of Thy temple.

Jowett, Benjamin 1817

It is the labour of travail. More about this in section 12. Pain comes to be my guest.

Jowett, Benjamin 1817

We can be endued with the powers of endless life.

John henry jowett from a to z

And as they mused the fire burned. First cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

Geoffrey Faber

We cannot be careless about our heart and yet retain the accuracy of our vision. It is significant of an end which has been reached through the ministry of flame. But something is vitally wrong when men can divorce their fear from their obedience.

‘You Have Made me Tear the Veil From Those Most Secret Feelings’: John Addington Symonds Amidst the Children

The sparrow will not take the path of the eagle.
