Vol. 33, No. 1, 2008 of The Canadian Journal of Sociology / Cahiers canadiens de sociologie on JSTOR

The strength of the CJS, above all, has been its unwavering commitment to being a research journal which advances knowledge in Sociology, to excellence, to scholarly diversity, to intellectual exchange and internationality. The Atlantic Canada Opportunities Agency ACOA represents the interests of Atlantic Canada in federal government policy making and has a mandate to coordinate federal efforts in matters relating to regional economic development. In addition, ACOA funds third-party policy research under programs such as the Atlantic Policy Research Initiative.
