16 Samskaras in Hinduism

Samskāras are the great, supreme, time-tested tools in our traditional systems which help carve out a great personality. The text discusses existence and consciousness, how the world came into existence and what is the relationship between nature and soul. Once the interest has been manifested we can just sit back and see the person work for his or her field of interest in a dynamic way.

Samkhyakarika

The food offered is cooked rice with ghee. You give power to this woman to bear a child.

Sāṁkhya Sūtras & Aphorisms

O gods, may we, with our ears, hear what is auspicious; O ye fit to be worshipped, may we, with our eyes, see what is auspicious. By advocating this samskara, the wise sages accomplished two important considerations. The old clothes are removed and the body is bathed with sanctified water.

Samkhyakarika

Soul desires freedom, meaning and liberation, and this it can achieve through contemplation and abstraction. More specifically, liberation from suffering comes from discriminative knowledge of Vyakta evolving, manifest world, Avyakta unevolving, unmanifest empirical world, Prakṛti, and Jñā knower, self, Puruṣa. To explain life from the lens of a Hindu? Oh my son, may u live for hundred years.

Samkhyakarika
