Humanitarian Issues Archives

There has never been a golden age of refugee protection. The lack of cooperation and coordination between all sides made things difficult.

THE RESPONSE OF REGIONAL ORGANIZATIONS TO INTERNAL DISPLACEMENT IN THE AMERICAS

ZAINUDDIN YAHYA Malaysia said that in addressing the problem of refugees and displaced persons, it was equally important that assistance be rendered to countries which hosted such persons. These same regional dynamics then influenced the way the so-called Arab spring affected Syria, one of the most devastating elements of which has been a refugee crisis that dwarfs even that of Iraq. UNHCR now employs some 18,000 people, across 135 countries in every part of the world.

The needs, challenges and power dynamics of refugee resettlement

Oddly, despite a rapid expansion of policy and action research on internal displacement in the latter half of the twentieth century, there was less empirical consideration of the normative parameters of the nascent regime. But to become a useful clearinghouse of information on internal displacement, it will have to find ways of making its information known.

Refugees and Displacement in the Middle East

Since we decided for the same number of topics for all countries, in some cases, topics were duplicated e. And very few developing countries are prepared to allow the local integration and naturalization of refugees living on their territory. In the past five years, UNHCR has made a concerted effort to bolster that regime, most notably through the formulation of a Global Compact on Refugees and by convening a Global Refugee Forum, both of which have been widely supported by states and other stakeholders.

IDMC

In many situations, IDPs have been shown to have higher mortality rates, higher malnutrition rates, and greater exposure to sexual violence, restrictions on movement, violations of land, housing and property rights, lack of access to education and jobs see reports of the International Organization for Migration, the World Food Program, the World Health Organization, UNHCR, IDMC : 19—20; 27, 47, 56, 70, 74, 77, 84, 89 as well as Mooney 2006; Feller ; Kälén , ; Ibañez et al. Is it their concentration in areas of conventional strategic and political interest? The UN High Commission on Refugees reports more than 16 million refugees and 60 million displaced persons around the world today, including asylum seekers and the internally displaced.
