The industry, represented by the ICS, also had an opportunity to speak. SHIPPING ARTICLE 20 1 When a vessel of the sending state visits a port which includes any place to which a vessel may come in the receiving state, the master and the members of the crew of the vessel shall be permitted to communicate with the consular officer in whose district the port is situated and the consular officer shall be permitted freely to perform the duties enumerated in Article 21 without interference on the part of the authorities of the territory. No two judges can be from the same country.

Lecture Series

The Agreement, which is part of the Convention, is now deemed to have paved the way for all States to become parties to the Convention.

Overview

This was the first major challenge to the freedom-of-the-seas doctrine. All the main Committees, as far as the topics were relevant to their mandates, were to deal with regional arrangements, responsibility and liability for damage resulting from the use of the marine environment, settlement of disputes, and the peaceful uses of the ocean space, zones of peace and security.

International Law and Justice

Appropriate deep-sea mining technology must be developed to accommodate this environment.

Convention Between the Government of Canada and the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland

Even more important, is their active participation in the institutions created by the Convention and their strong support for the regime contained in it.
