A l'état sauvage : M. Pokora dans les pas de Mike Horn

General, who headed the French armistice delegation, was told to break off negotiations if the Germans demanded the occupation of all metropolitan France, the French fleet, or any of the French overseas territories. President Roosevelt continued to cultivate Vichy, and promoted General as a preferable alternative to de Gaulle, despite the poor performance of Vichy forces in North Africa—Admiral had landed in the day before Operation Torch. Although the French won an important over the Thais, Japan forced the French to accept Japanese mediation of a peace treaty that returned the disputed territory to Thai control.

.: L'ETAT SAUVAGE

The July 1942 is a tragic example of how the French police did the Nazi work, going even further than what military orders demanded by sending children to Drancy internment camp, last stop before the extermination camps.
