Should we not ndr turally conclude, that both had related many fictions, and perhaps fome truths? This dissertation posits that writers can symbolically represent domestic violence to critique unjust gender relations as well as iniquitous US policy toward Mexican Americans. With incredible attention and expence, they fored them with every valuable manuſcript they could poſſibly procure ; and whatever inre- lentiog feverity

a vanquished prince might, by Eastern custom, experience from his more fortunate competitor, his books appear to have? My chief purpose has been to imply to you, that the significations brought from the Arabic and Persian languages are expressive; and may easily, without violence, justify a possibility of their having been so employed. In order to show how literary characters can be presented as examples, I read Bleak House, Dracula, and Through the Looking-Glass and What Alice Found There as illustrative texts demonstrating how community membership depends on the rhetorical knowledge of literacy practices.
