5 German Novels For Beginners and Intermediate German Learners

For the condition of the English working-classes had been greatly relieved by emigration, by factory legislation, by trades unions, whereas in some of these directions nothing at all, and in others only the faintest beginnings, had as yet been effected in Germany.

English and German BA

It is so quiet, so simple; and although ancient in its architecture, has none of the picturesqueness which delights the eye in most old German cities.

How to Choose Outstanding Multicultural Books

In the Race for Wealth will be found one of the best descriptions extant of the way in which certain manufacturing chemists meet the demand that unfortunately exists fostered by competitive cheapness for various forms of adulterated goods. The mixture of two languages was detrimental to conversation, and the great assemblies at Berlin afforded no higher interest than those at Vienna; or rather, in point of manners, there was more of the custom of the world at the latter than at the former of those capitals.
