. . Pew also found in an October 2017 poll that 51% of Indians felt China's growing economy was a bad thing for India while only 20% felt it was a good thing for India's economy.

India

The first-ever official visit to Australia by an Indian defense minister came in 2013 and, during Prime Minister Modi's late 2014 visit to Canberra, the two countries agreed to extend defense cooperation to cover research, development, and industry engagement. Prime Minister Modi has conveyed his hopes for a solution to the Teesta river dispute. It is a long-term strategic project which Sri Lanka and the region could benefit from economically.
