During the rest of the afternoon, time was spent both reading LTTE literature and more physical training. Most poignant however is the daily torment of 19 year old Lichchowi Nishanthe Weerasinghe's 72 year old mother, who frequently encounters a man wearing the shoes she had gifted her son and which he was wearing the day he was abducted. The CoE Committee on Counter-Terrorism, the key coordinating body for the CoE activities to combat terrorism, held plenary meetings in May and November.

‘Disappearance’ and ‘Displacement’ in Sri Lanka

The article highlights that unlike the Rajapaksa era, there is no explicit government support towards extremist Buddhist groups attacking religious minorities. The International Criminal Police Organization INTERPOL.
