Based on this analysis, it seems that the 1690 date is more accurate, since he would have been in his 20's or possibly early 30's when he began having children. Gamble are said to be the first pioneers to make lasting homes in the locality of Hamilton County which had previously been frequented only by trappers, traders, and missionaries. Give my respects to all your brothers and sisters and all inquiring friends.

The Magill

The best way for oxen drawn wagons to cross the Appalachian Mountains was by traveling parallel to it along the great transverse valleys, and cutting across gaps rather than proceeding directly across. Sarah Agnes Magill,6 born January 20, 1880. They traveled an approximate seventy-five miles from Kingston in Roane County to a trading post Old French Store where the city of Chattanooga now stands.
