As you can see from the photo the insignia is cut in relief on to a rectangular dressed stone.

Friar Felix at Large: 15th Century Pilgrimage (1950) H. F. M. Prescott, HCDJ VG

It is very likely that the iconography of the tomb indicates the deceased had been on pilgrimage to Cologne, Canterbury and Rome. The photos and film footage of the visit show her wearing flat shoes and carrying a blackthorn walking stick. The earliest historical reference to a church at Ballymore dates to 1192.
