Puritan Political Ideas 1558-1794 ed. Although the English failed in their attempts to conquer the southern part of South America, yet their attacks upon the viceroyalty of la Plata were not without influence ; for they broke down the commercial barriers which surrounded that colony, and furnished some colonists a training in the art of war. In 1790, when the Nootka Sound controversy arose out of the conflicting claims of Spain and England to territory on the northwest coast of North America, Miranda first formally presented his designs to the English government.
