Gu (poison)

At present, ku is used primarily as a means of acquiring wealth; secondarily as a means of revenge.

Bonhams : AN ARCHAIC BRONZE WINE VESSEL, GU Shang dynasty

Chinese folklore claims the definitive cure for gu-magic is passing it on to a greedy person. In general reptiles and insects, which are used to make ku, are cures for ku; therefore, if we know what ku is at work, we may remedy its effects.

Jin Gu Die Shang Wan

Shang dynasty The slightly tapered cylindrical body cast between a tall trumpet neck and a flaring pedestal foot, the body and splayed foot cast with raised flanges separating and bisecting pairs of taotie masks with raised eyes against a leiwen ground, with a pair of bowstrings dividing the body from the pedestal foot, the trumpet neck encircled at the base by a band of four S-shaped serpents below four upright triangular blades enclosing raised ridges sporting hooked appendages against a leiwen ground, the greenish-brown patina with areas of encrustation, the interior of the foot cast with a three character inscription partially obscured by encrustation.
