Babymouse: Rock Star book by Jennifer L. Holm

This book was book 4 in the BabyMouse series.

Babymouse #4: Rock Star by Jennifer L. Holm, Matthew Holm: 9780375832321

She instantly gets excited and decides to audition. Or is our brave and fearless camper lost forever?! This is one of a series of Babymouse books. I would not use it as a teaching tool but it would be good to have in the class room library.

Indigo

A mouse as a hero? I am unsure if it being the fourth book accounts for my confusion while reading or it was just the writing style. Will she ever find her missing fish? She plans to start the journey toward making her dream a reality by becoming the best flute player in her school band. The black and white illustrations are shaded with the use of pink on every page.

Like Babymouse, brother and sister team Matthew Holm and Jennifer Holm were born with music in their souls.

Indigo

It tells the story of Baby Mouse and how she started playing the flute and the struggles that she goes through with school. Even all of her imagination are pink so you know when that's not really happening! During band class she has always been last chair and even though she is not very good she is always practicing to become better. She eat a cupcake at Wilson's house at the end of Babymouse: Queen of the World.

Rock Star

. Holm also has written a series featuring Jane Peck, a young woman living in the 1850s Boston Jane: An Adventure, Boston Jane: Wilderness Days and Boston Jane: The Claim; The Creek, a horror thriller; Babymouse and Squish, series of graphic novels for children illustrated by her brother ; and , a series co-written with her husband Jonathan Hamel featuring James Edward Bristlefur, a cat raised by a British secret agent who is adopted by an American family and renamed Mr. How can she improve her playing so that she isn't the worst flute player in the band? It would mean so much to them at this time.
