Are Young People Really Leaving Christianity?

Three-quarters of Americans, 77%, identify with some organized religion, though that is down from 90% in 1998 through 2000 6. This rationalist perspective has led to theories of various kinds.

8.2 Explaining Stratification

The former take advantage of their position at the top of society to stay at the top, even if it means oppressing those at the bottom. The central role of the Bible in Christianity is reflected in the preference of Christian historians for written sources, compared to the classical historians' preference for oral sources and is also reflected in the inclusion of politically unimportant people.

Criminology (CRIM) < George Mason University

British historian Heather Jones argues that the in recent years has been reinvigorated by the cultural turn. Fights and feuds are settled by raping the rival's mother, wife, daughter or sister.

8.2 Explaining Stratification

The job of the historian is to chart these changes and identify the reasons for them. This is due to Pakistan's society and gender roles that expect men to be violent and women to be fragile.
