Why We Left

A book called The Deeds of Augustus notes that Augustus had ordered three major censuses in his empire and that many local census were also conducted. The early Hebrews believed that the firstborn male of humans and animals belonged to God Exodus 13:1.

Myth and Reality of King David's Jerusalem

At both John's and Jesus' circumcisions, naming is mentioned. The first arch was destroyed in the Middle Ages; its inscription, however, was copied by an anonymous monk from Einsiedeln Switzerland who visited Rome in the eighth century. If you want, you can make it so only parents can change these settings.

Do the narratives of Jesus' birth contradict each other?

Through the roar of the flames streaming far and wide, the groans of the falling victims were heard; such was the height of the hill and the magnitude of the blazing pile that the entire city seemed to be ablaze; and the noise - nothing more deafening and frightening could be imagined.

Welcome to the Family History Library
