Furthermore, in most of the manufacturing countries China, Bangladesh, India.

Government confirms 400,000 Turkish gowns are useless for NHS

Paine Publication Year: 1974 Weight: 0. The necessary clearances, it turned out, had not been sought. Categorization of manufacturing sub-sectors according to their orientations in international trade shows that, both wages and mark-ups in exporting firms remained systematically below manufacturing average for the whole period.

ScaNdalous use of Forced Labour Many cases of forced labour have also been reported along the supply chain of the fashion industry. Exporting firms need to maintain wages at the lowest possible level to keep competitiveness at international markets and wages are not affected by export performance. I believe the above approach holds good for test cases not for test plans.
