The Legacy of the Council on Wage and Stability

This resolution, which consisted of the revisions proposed by the committee in 1974, was adopted by the Senate on August 15, 1986. The Chilean banking system is healthy and competitive, and many Chilean banks already meet Basel III standards, which are part of a reform to the General Banking Law, enacted in January 2019. Basel III standards will be introduced gradually over the next several years.
