Ships wrecked or sunk

One of the dead bodies was found lashed to the quarter, and another floated ashore, the third was not found.

SINKINGS, SALVAGES AND SHIPWRECKS by Robert F. Burgess

The theories about what happened to the crew of the Mary Celeste range from the logical mutiny to the convoluted fumes from the industrial-grade alcohol drove everyone mad to the supernatural attack by giant squid. Records in other archives Lloyds Marine Collection The is a major source of information about merchant shipping losses, based at the Guildhall Library, Aldermanbury, London EC 2. He built Le Griffon, one of the first European ships to sail the Great Lakes, and sailed with the ship through Lake Erie and Lake Huron, but upon reaching what is present-day Green Bay he disembarked to continue exploring via canoe.

7 of History's Most Mysterious Shipwrecks

The cargo consisted of fifteen hogsheads spermaceti oil, 100 barrels tar, and the rigging and sails of the ship Charles, which was cast away near Nantucket - all of which will be saved with little damage.
