This, in turn, marks an impact on initiatives and innovative ideas from the employees. Communication plays an important role in facilitating successful implementation of a policy and should be a core part of policy development from the beginning and throughout the stages of implementation. Research Design The field survey was conducted in two phases, Luliang in 2013—2015 and Longyang in 2010—2012 as a part of a larger research project.

Key actions in effective policy development and planning

Since late arrivals, early departures, or other absences from scheduled hours are disruptive, they are to be avoided.

Planning for implementation

They perceived that drought knowledge, awareness, and governance structures, such as water-user groups at the local level, are less effective for policy implementation, especially if they do not have enough funds to implement the project. This is mainly for purposes of facilitating the delegation of authority and responsibility.
