The aim of this support is to promote safe and sustainable economic growth and alleviate poverty by harnessing maritime resources, preserving marine environments and facilitating trade.

Commonwealth Heads of Government Meeting (CHOGM)

The UWI-CARICOM Project: Contributing to a Viable Community 2007 This publication details in a comprehensive manner, the work performed by the UWI-CARICOM Project from its inception in 2001 to the present. Key themes to be addressed will include the opportunities and challenges Caribbean states face in developing their marine economies, including strengthening food security; enabling blue economies, safeguarding the marine environment; and supporting marine resilience. Through data collection, knowledge-sharing and training, we aim to enable the sustainable development of marine economies in this region and the wider Commonwealth.

Discussions will focus on what and how shared expertise, collaboration and co-ordination with existing regional projects can best help achieve sustainable blue growth. The initiative is part of the UK Government funded CME programme, and follows on from similar consultation events held in the Pacific and Indian Ocean regions. It is the first time that these speeches, covering a period of more than 30 years - 1963 to 2000, will be available to the Caribbean public in a single volume.

The UWI

These speeches reveal how the Caribbean leaders, prompted by the existing historical circumstances, pushed for integration and unity; how they were undeterred by the failure of the Federation; how they faced the challenges provided by the economic crisis of the 80s; how they responded with ideas and new institutions; and how they sought to ensure the Community's adequate preparation for the new millennium. Specializing in academic, collectible and historically significant, providing the utmost quality and customer service satisfaction. .
