Kandinsky, Franz Marc, August Macke: Drawings and Watercolors by Hutton

Early Impressionists were fascinated by the endless expanses of the deserts, the buildings and the high sky over Africa.

Kandinsky Drawings

Macke, Klee and Moilliet immersed themselves in a mysterious wonderland: the flair of Tunis, the medina, the Arabic tangle of languages, old buildings from Greek and Roman times, dromedaries as beasts of burden and Berbers in their traditional, waving robes - all this had fascinated August Macke.

Ses œuvres vont de l'expressionnisme au surréalisme. The flood of impressions must have put August Macke in an almost ecstatic state - he made one sketch after another: House roofs and views out of the window, small cubic and light yellow painted houses with blue shutters are captured by August Macke in two-dimensional, radiantly bright pictures.
