

Put away - a sociological study of institutions for the mentally retarded.

Routledge - Walter · Page 3 · Learning on Screen

Description: -

-Put away - a sociological study of institutions for the mentally retarded.

-

The international library of sociology

The sociology of mental health -- 6Put away - a sociological study of institutions for the mentally retarded.

Notes: Reprint of the ed. published: London : Routledge & K. Paul, 1969.

This edition was published in 1998

Filesize: 34.69 MB

Tags: #Past #and #Present #Perceptions #Towards #Disability: #A #Historical #Perspective

Walter · Page 3 · Learning on Screen

Families, legal guardians, and child welfare committees can admit women and girls with psychosocial or intellectual disabilities to institutions without their consent.

A century of learning disability nursing

Yet the central importance of emotion in human affairs is undeniable. There is often horror at the thought of large institutions and how they segregated so many people, but how will the next generation look back on nursing today? Pauline Morris was Principal Lecturer in Sociology at the Borough Polytechnic, London. London, Oxford University Press, 1964.

Past and Present Perceptions Towards Disability: A Historical Perspective

Click on the links below to listen to each clip via Soundcloud or read the full transcript. Persons with disabilities were completely rejected by some cultures, in others they were outcasts, while in some they were treated as economic liabilities and grudgingly kept alive by their families. .

The Nature and Foundations of the Concept of Normalization

Both Walter and Walter and June deal with the vulnerability of the mentally disabled in a society lacking in education and decent care facilities. It was hypothesized that those areas of child development which were most severely disciplined would create high levels of anxiety and would also be incorporated in theories of illness within the society. Congress passed the Mental Health Study Act of 1955.

Related Books

- Research and planning for higher education - 17th annual forum, Montreal, Quebec
- Piety of John Witherspoon - pew, pulpit, and public forum
- Sociedad cautiva
- Moneys from Shylock
- Basic home decorating