Tipperary's G.A.A. Story: 1985

On the 1963 team, Sarsfields had three sets of brothers; Michael and Noel Murphy, Jimmy and Paddy Doyle and Michael and Larry Keane. The club had won a minor county final the previous year against Cashel, and a number of that panel featured in 1974. This was a red letter day for Thurles and it marked an epoch in the history of the GAA.

Tipp started out with the breeze and scored the opening point, but soon went behind after a Kerry goal after 7 minutes. Tipp got an early point in the second half. Tipperary led by 2—5 to 0—6 at halftime and at no time in the game was their victory in doubt.
