Find Jobs in Germany: Job Search

Thus, NAViGaTOR extends the basic concept of network visualization to visual data mining. They model networks using graphs and focus on problems such as: The Analysis of the Structure and Characteristics of Small-Sized Social Networks e. Moreover, two mixed methods combining extrinsic as well as intrinsic characteristics were tested.

Data Compression Conference

Concepts included understanding Earth as complex, dynamic system, deep time, evolution of life, natural resources, energy, hazards, hydrogeology, surface processes, Earth materials and structure, and climate change. Classification is a central application for EAs, where they can be used for classification rule mining. The references given below, and cited in the text, are therefore offered as illustration and suggestion rather than as corroborative detail.
