Newfoundland and Labrador: Census and Enumerations

As in this Colony the Educational and Road Grants are allocated to each section according to its population, it is obvious that the enumeration must not only be of the people as a whole, but also of the residents in each settlement A large number of these people can only be found at their homes during the xfihtéréason a time when it is impossible to take the census, owing to the difficulties of communication and travel. Grand Banks 1681 Newfoundland and Labrador census Bonavista N. This census was taken under the Cap.
