THE IDEOCRATIC STATE AND NATIONAL IDENTITY: THE SERBIAN EXPERIENCE IN THE 20TH CENTURY

Goran Stoparić, an ex-member of the SAJ, speculating about motives behind the Podujevo massacre, stated: In my opinion, the only motive was the fact that the victims were Albanians, and perhaps because of some hidden immaturity or sickness of mind on their part. Others including former members of his cabinet such as have admitted that Milošević, while not head of state of Yugoslavia in the early 1990s, in fact played a key role in the military affairs taken in Slovenia, Croatia, and Bosnia. In such a situation, the Yugoslav cabinet passed a decree for extraditing Milosevic, which was patently illegal.

Serbia's Antibureaucratic Revolution

After Deputy war crimes prosecutor Bruno Vekarić subsequently interviewed 44 witnesses both in Serbia and Croatia, the investigation did not find a single witness who burdened Purda. Ithaca, NY: Cornell University Press.

And they achieved results, no doubt. By June 1999, the Yugoslav military, Serbian police and paramilitaries expelled 862,979 Albanians from Kosovo, and several hundred thousand more were internally displaced, in addition to those displaced prior to March.

Serbia

Upon the creation of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, Milošević's government engaged in reforms to the Serbian Penal Code regarding restrictions on free speech, which were seen by critics as highly authoritarian. Avon, England, UK: Bath Press, May 1994. Edited by Charles Ingrao and Thomas A.

Serbia in the Yugoslav Wars

Both the Serbian and federal Yugoslav laws granted limited exemptions to journalists.

Serbia's Antibureaucratic Revolution

U središtu romana Satovi u majčinoj sobi jeste odnos majke i ćerke, ali i savremena žena u komplikovanom svetu društvenih odnosa, moći i tabua. Edited by Nebojša Popov, 301—339. In Roy, Olivier; Elbasani, Arolda eds.

Serbia's Antibureaucratic Revolution

There was no significant violation of law and order. On May 2, the Croatian police, in an attempt to rescue two policemen from Serb imprisonment, attacked the village of Borovo Selo.

Serbia's Antibureaucratic Revolution

The result was multiple charges against a variety of people opposed to the policies of the Serbian and Yugoslav governments even including a Serbian cartoonist who designed political satire. In the late 1980s, Milošević allowed the mobilization of Serb nationalist organizations to go unhindered by actions from the Serbian government, with Chetniks holding demonstrations, and the Serbian government embracing the and restored its legitimacy in Serbia. On this basis, he stated that the Croatian Serbs and later the Bosnian Serbs should not have been subject to the declarations of independence by the Yugoslav republics of Croatia and Bosnia and Herzegovina.
