On his return he berates the saint and even scourges the image, but Nicholas himself forces the robbers to return the treasure. Why should we respect the intent and wishes of a playwright when we perform their play? During the 11th and 12th centuries, the , along with other biblical themes, received similar treatment. The mystery plays gave guilds the opportunity to advertise and show off their wares.

The Medieval Drama

While it seems that small nomadic bands traveled around Europe throughout the period, performing wherever they could find an audience, there is no evidence that they produced anything but crude scenes. The practice blossomed — many playlets developed dealing with biblical themes— mostly Easter, Christmas, the 12 th Night Feast of the Epiphany. Why not take a few moments to tell us what you think of our website? THE INTERLUDES Early in the sixteenth century, the Morality in its turn was largely superseded by another sort of play called the Interlude.
