Ulster plantation

The Corrupt Practices Act of 1883 restricted the amount of money an individual candidate could spend on his election thus increasing the importance of party organisation and fundraising. There were five great waves of emigration , with a lesser flow in intervening years: 1717-1718, 1725-1729, 1740-1741, 1754-1755, and 1771-1775.

Ulster Unionist Party

The application is being developed by RTA, an associate company of OMS. This often led outsiders to mistakenly believe that the Gaelic Irish were nomadic.

Ulster

The first two helped fill up the back country of Pennsylvania and soon began spilling over into the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia.

Nationalism and Unionism in Nineteenth

Caught in the middle was David Trimble, who was accused by his fellow Protestants of making too many concessions to the Republicans. Massachusetts reluctantly admitted a few but so disliked their uncongenial ways that later arrivals in Boston went on to New Hampshire or Maine.
