capital thus employing more debt would mean higher returns but is riskier while on the other hand, equity capital gives lower return due to higher cost of capital but is less risky. It involves evaluating various possible investment opportunities and selecting the best options.

A Comparison of Data Modeling Methods for Big Data

Deterministic model of problem solving depends on the relationship between uncontrollable factors and continuing process of optimizing system performance. What if a decision goes wrong? Buffers in DBR provide the additional lead time beyond the required set up and process times, for materials in the product flow.

Decision Support System—DSS Definition

A prudent financial manager selects the cheapest sources of finance. When people have genuine disagreements or when the future is murky, rather than endless debates, fuming arguments and efforts to persuade one another, Bezos opts for an experiment.
