Like the infamous question of how while theoretically locked in a cargo hold, there is a canon answer to this plot hole that was lost in translation between script and screen. The sheriff's department has alerted area municipalities to the attack and recommended they inspect their water treatment systems and other infrastructure for signs of a breach.

Water & Wastewater

The frigid weather has made predicting when the site would be open a challenge, and the YMCA advises residents to call 325-655-9106 to verify it is open. People unable to shower were offered assistance by the YMCA of San Angelo, which began allowing people to use its showers at 353 S.
