However, no labor union may strike and no employer may declare a lockout on grounds involving inter-union and intra-union disputes. The apparent purpose of these letters was to advise the Agabons that they were welcome to return back to work, and not to notify them of the grounds of termination. If necessary, the Commission may require the petitioner to post a bond and writ of preliminary injunction or restraining order shall become effective only upon the approval of the bond which shall answer for any damage that may be suffered by the party enjoined, if it is finally determined that the petitioner is not entitled thereto.

Any agreement on such other provisions of the Collective Bargaining Agreement entered into within six 6 months from the date of expiry of the term of such other provisions as fixed in such Collective Bargaining Agreement, shall retroact to the day immediately following such date. Due process under the Labor Code, like Constitutional due process, has two aspects: substantive, i. At present, the validity of an employee's dismissal is weighed against the standards laid down in Article 279, as well as Article 282 in relation to Article 277 b of the Labor Code, for a dismissal for just cause, and Article 283 for a dismissal for an authorized cause.

An employee who tries to kill the employer cannot be magically absolved of trespasses just because the employer forgot to serve due notice. Just as patriotism is the last refuge of scoundrels, the broad constitutional claim is the final resort of the desperate litigant. Im sure they will either terminate me or ask me to resign which i will not do because i did not drop the call.

Interestingly, both Justices Puno and Panganiban adopted the dissenting position that the provisions of Article XII of the Constitution alone were insufficient to accord the Filipino bidder a preferential right to obtain the winning bid for Manila Hotel.

Wisconsin Employment Relations Commission

Any union officer who knowingly participates in an illegal strike and any worker or union officer who knowingly participates in the commission of illegal acts during a strike may be declared to have lost his employment status: Provided, That mere participation of a worker in a lawful strike shall not constitute sufficient ground for termination of his employment, even if a replacement had been hired by the employer during such lawful strike.
