Medieval English Mystics

The Premature Reformation: Wycliffite T exts and Lollard History. This course therefore explores not only of their writings, but also of the context in which they arose.

Medieval English Mystics

A combination of often horribly troubled times, the desire for new forms of religion and a new immediacy of relation with God, and socio-economic and literary change contributed to the complex and fascinating picture; but these mystics were very remarkable individuals in their own right,
