QuickStats: Life Expectancy at Birth, by Sex and Race/Ethnicity — United States, 2011

On October 28, 1973, the first all women's marathon was held in Waldniel, West Germany. Deep in the backcountry of Tennessee lies a 100-plus mile course likely longer created to break anyone who attempts it. In 1992 the route was changed to span the entire length of Africa.

10+ Longest NASCAR Racetracks

There are also 20—count them, 20—stream crossings, for an added bonus. Gibb had been inspired to run by the return of her race entry with a note saying that women were not physically capable of running a marathon.

QuickStats: Life Expectancy at Birth, by Sex and Race/Ethnicity — United States, 2011

The New York Times ran an editorial pointing out that in just fifteen years the women's record had been lowered by one hour.

10+ Longest NASCAR Racetracks

First, some experts claimed that women's health would be damaged by long-distance running.

The Fight To Establish The Women's Marathon Race

Although endorsement by the IAAF was an important step toward the establishment of a women's marathon, many obstacles had yet to be overcome.
