The early settlers, who had gotten their land before Penn arrived, were for the most part Quakers. It must be remembered that the Catholic Church persecuted the protestant denominations throughout European history.

Frackville Genealogy (in Schuylkill County, Pennsylvania)

I DLH initially thought this sounded grossly optimistic; however, as I have researched deeper into my grandfather's tree, I think at least 43% of his immigrant ancestors of the 17th century had Quaker backgrounds. Schalck; State Historical Society Madison, WI , 1907.
