History

They didnt know about the ghost story. There are two trains that run here, one right below the town, but the other right above it, and the wagons run to and fro on them many times a day, so much so that one can almost expect news on the hour, yes, even every minute with the telegraph. This happened with the 1996 Gjálp eruption, when meltwater drained into a subglacial lake for five weeks before this ruptured, releasing the largest jökulhlaup in living memory.

I Remember You (2017)

For the environmentally conscious travelers, there is the Guesthouse Brenna ; 354-864-5531 in Hella, operated by Ragnheidur Ranka Jónasdóttir, the daughter of famous Icelandic playwright Jónas Arnason.

Top 10 Moments in Iceland's History

As he led the journalist and cameraman to the second floor, the cameraman bolted back down the stairs.

From Iceland — Saga Stories #4: Njáls Saga

The festival was conceived of in 2004 by a group of cinema enthusiasts looking to not only boost the film culture of Iceland but also to draw an international crowd.
