Vol. 63, No. 2, Apr., 1993 of The Library Quarterly: Information, Community, Policy on JSTOR

If this insatiable passion continues, it were as well if our public schools and universities were abolished, and that travel and all other means of acquiring knowledge and refinement were at once prohibited; and in their places, other seminaries erected in this metropolis, and proper masters appointed, to instruct our children in the rudiments of brag, cribbage and lansquenet, till they were of a proper age to study whist, and the other games of skill, at the academy of Mr. Another important Renaissance source, containing references to watermark names and sheet sizes, is the so-called Ripoli Diary, recording the activity of a press in the Dominican female convent in Florence, see Melissa Conway, The Diario of the Printing Press of San Jacopo di Ripoli 1476-1484. One well-worn legend relating to early Egyptian papermaking, with ghoulish overtones, involves the recycling of linen-wrappings taken from mummies.

Bibliographical Analysis: A Historical Introduction

Most of this work has dealt with literature in English, but it is worth pointing out that extensive compositorial analysis of the first two editions of Don Quixote was undertaken by R. The ordering is unashamedly chronological and fuller discussions of all these items appear in Chapter 3.
