Why Republican voters say there's 'no way in hell' Trump lost

But now with millions heading to the polls in three months, security experts are sounding the alarm, reports CBS News correspondent Mireya Villarreal. The committee discovered that non-residents had participated in the election, a claim President Pierce refused to recognize. He said that it has refused to let go of a story on voter fraud in Philadelphia.

On Tim Robbins, election fraud and how nonsense spreads around the Internet

This article may present , without giving to the mainstream view, and explaining the responses to the fringe theories. This is not just a party issue. But at the conclusion of the piece, I say repeatedly, it is smelly what happened in Ohio.

This Is How They Will Suggest the Election Was Stolen

In the first round held on November 2, 2014, two candidates out of the 14 qualified for a run-off because none of the candidates obtained more than 50% of the votes; Victor Ponta of Social Democratic Party, and Klaus Iohannis of National Liberal Party PNL. They cited vote suppression and fraud as reasons for the eight-million-vote difference between exit poll data and the final outcome. But the fact is that he is not hurting, exactly, but he was defeated.

How the 2000 Election Results Came Down to a Supreme Court Decision

You are aware that there was a reason why Amendment XIV to CONUS came to be, right? According to Ohio recount rules, 3% of a county's votes are tallied by hand, and typically one or more whole precincts are selected and combined to get the 3% sample. Indeed, the effect size in states without paper voting trails is considerably larger: 1. Not surprising, Democrats were unhappy with the results, Busch notes, while Republicans were happy and relieved.
