CARES Act Summary: Increased and Expanded Unemployment Insurance Benefits

Step 2: Evaluate when would be the best time for you to apply You can file for benefits as soon as you become unemployed, and while there is no specific deadline to file your claim, it is generally advised that you apply for benefits as soon as possible. If you do not succeed in submitting the form, you will not get benefits for the period of that particular two-week period unless you provide good cause a compelling reason which prohibited you from filing the claim by the deadline. If you do not agree with the decision you can further appeal to the California Unemployment Insurance Appeal Board.
