Ohio County Histories

The Methodists were the first to hold religious services in the township, establishing six churches, three of which were no longer active in 1906: Cedar Grove, the Methodist Episcopal on Hay Run, and the Locust Grove M. Orders for books or CDs may be sent to the address above with the appropriate fees. Newell and Emaline had a few children and were buried with relatives in Green Lawn Cemetery on Greenlawn Ave.

Early Settlers of Pickaway County Townships

The main reason for this increase was the large number of residents from Columbus, in nearby Franklin County, who sought to escape that city's busyness by moving to more rural, neighboring counties.
